Australian Open - Day four wrap

With the women's competition commencing yesterday, it was time for the 2021 Australian Open men's pairs event to get started on Tuesday.

With 74 sections taking to the greens, big names and previous champions won their way through, while others did it the hard way.

BPL about to get eXtreme

The sport's showpiece television event, the Bowls Premier League, is poised to welcome an exciting new team to the biannual competition, with the Melbourne eXtreme set to join the fray in BPL14.

Check out the roster for the Club Sunbury owned franchise set to push for the title in November.

Australian Open 2021: BowlsLink Redraw, Sectional Draws and knockout draws

Following some Victorian withdrawals from the Australian Open, all draws have been redrawn, all of which are available to view now.

Players now have access to information relating to the order in which they'll play the opposition in their section and which rink/green each match will be played.

The BowlsLink Redraws & Results can be used in conjunction with the Sectional Draws already released; the Sectional Draws provide an easy way to search for an individual to find their section number, which can then be used in the BowlsLink Draws & Results to locate their match details and results.
