

HALLS HEADS BOWLING & RECREATION CLUB INC

EMPLOYEE DEVELOPMENT POLICY 2023-2024

1. Purpose

- 1.1 Halls Head Bowling and Recreation Club (Inc.) recognises the importance of training and developing its staff.
- 1.2 Halls Head Bowling and Recreation Club (Inc.) understands that its employees are key to its success as an organisation. It, therefore, encourages its staff to be continually improving their skills and abilities both through on-the- job and off-the-job training.
- 1.3 Halls Head Bowling and Recreation Club (Inc.) acknowledges that training and development of staff provides benefits both to its employees in terms of their overall career and prospects for advancement within the organisation, as well as being central to the success it can achieve as a business.
- 1.4 This Staff Training and Development Policy (Policy) sets out what the Halls Head Bowling and Recreation Club (Inc.) may offer employees through training and development opportunities aimed at promoting the growth of individuals, teams and achieving success for the organisation.

2. Commencement of Policy

- 2.1 This Policy will commence in April 2023. It replaces all other policies dealing with staff training and development (whether written or not).

3. Application of the Policy

- 3.1 This Policy applies to all employees of Halls Head Bowling and Recreation Club (Inc.). This Policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment.

4. Training

- 4.1 Halls Head Bowling and Recreation Club (Inc.) may require you to undertake specific training related to your current position, or as a prerequisite for performing a different position, for example, if you are promoted to a higher position. Any such training may be carried out either at Halls Head Bowling and Recreation Club (Inc.) premises or externally.
- 4.2 Training opportunities may also arise as part of your performance review. Halls Head Bowling and Recreation Club (Inc.) encourages employees to propose suggestions for employment-related training to assist their development.

4.3 You are required to have the permission of Halls Head Bowling and Recreation Club (Inc.) prior to either signing up or attending, a training course. If you fail to obtain permission, Halls Head Bowling and Recreation Club (Inc.) at its discretion, may decide not to reimburse you for any course fees you have paid or discipline you for any unauthorised time you have taken off work (up to and including termination of employment).

5. How does staff development work?

5.1 Individual staff training and development needs should be discussed during Halls Head staff development review process. The review process is designed to:

- a) encourage constructive dialogue between staff members and their supervisors:
- b) enhance the staff member's professional development:
- c) clarify job responsibilities and performance goals/expectations:
- d) establish appropriate development and performance objectives:
- e) help staff identify a possible career path for themselves:
- f) identify ways in which GBC's organisation and/or operation might enable individuals to improve their performance:
- g) ensure that information, on job performance, and achievements is recorded in each staff member's employment history: and
- h) provide a basis for decisions on remuneration.

6. What can Halls Head Bowling and Recreation Club (Inc.) offer?

6.1 Halls Head Bowling and Recreation Club (Inc.) may offer any of the following opportunities for staff development:

- a) an induction program when you join Halls Head Bowling and Recreation Club (Inc.), to understand the manner in which Halls Head Bowling and Recreation Club (Inc.) operates, including what contribution you are expected to make;
