Halls Head Bowling Club has been lucky enough to acquire a heap of brand new bowling clothes courtesy of a local Op Shop. Gail Nimmo and Sue Edwards have been very busy sorting all this merchandise out and selling it to our members. The girls have the merchandise displayed most bowling days in the bowling area of the club house. If you're after a bargain ($10/item) please pop on down and see our local saleswomen. Please mention it to other bowlers and friends in the district as all stock must be sold. All proceeds going back to the Op Shop.

Enjoy our winter sunshine, while it lasts, on and off the greens
Happy Bowling

Men's Captains Report

Hello everyone.

Sorry I have been a little remiss with filing reports of late.

As to what's been happening Jill and I have just about finished the coming year's fixtures. I have decided that due to the popularity of Monday's Any Gender Nominated Pairs we will continue to run it through the whole year.

Winners for the past week

Saturday 8/7/23

Winners Allan Shaddick and Rudi Loser

Second Ian McColl (new member) and Bob Irvine

Third Tom Norwood and Dave Butler

Monday Nominated Any Gender Pairs

Winners Keith Savage and Ron Summers

Second Graham Doy and Jack Miolin

Third Vicki Spragg and K Warne

Cons. Bob Paul and Graeme Atkins

Wednesday Social Bowls

Due to our Greens being underwater we only had B Green available to us. 36 players turned up which proved to be the perfect number to play 3 Bowl Triples.

Winners Simon Towers, Peter Brown and Dave Mathieson

Second Ash Kemble, Jeff Allen and Tony Plant

Let's hope the weather Gods are with us in the coming weeks.

Cheers

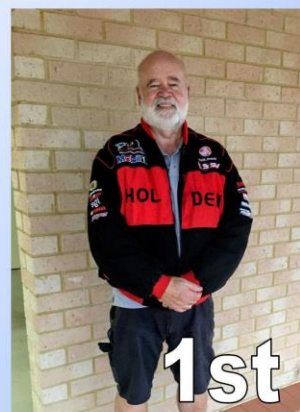

Dave Butler

Scroungers Results

54 players took part in scroungers On Friday July 7 in windy and minor wet conditions. There was a small-time delay during the semifinals and consolation waiting for some small areas of water to clear. Once again, the final was of a high standard. Chris Barker put in some great bowls only to be nudged out on a couple of occasions. Richard Meares went on to win the day. Chris Barker and Keith Byers were next ending up on 8. A roll off between the two ended in Chris Barker being second and Keith Byers third. Bill Robertson won the consolation.

Regards
Michael Bear.
