Ladies Captains Report

Another busy week had by all our members. The ladies completed their Veterans Championship last Thursday with some very good bowling being played throughout the tournament and especially during the major and plate grand finals.

Winner : Chris Barker

Runner-up: Iris Redshaw

Plate Winner: Patsy Smith

Plate R/Up: Jeni Stretton

Thank-you very much to all the markers and umpires throughout the championships and the markers, umpire and board turners during the finals. Also to our very generous sponsors, Bendigo Community Bank. Without you all these championships would be very difficult to run.

We had 30 social bowlers turn up for a roll last Thursday too. A very healthy number indeed.

Winners: Jenni Petty, Pat Dudley, Trish McGerr

2nd Place: Jeanette Brockman, Mariee Scanlan, Julie Seddon

3rd Place: Judy Morgan, Edith Trewren, Lyn Parker.

This Tuesday 3rd Oct and Thursday 5th October the ladies are holding their 4's Championships. The Grand-final in this very competitive event (major and plate) will be played approx 1pm Thursday afternoon. Come on down and give the ladies a bit of support.

Last Friday, Comet Bay held their annual Ladies Open Triples Day. Once again Halls Head supported this very enjoyable event very well with 5 teams entering. Well done girls and well supported. The team of:

Jill Gumbleton, Gail Nimmo and Heather Little ran 2nd behind a Dudley Park team that ran 1st and a team from Swan Bowling Club who ran 3rd.

Next Tuesday, 10th October, all pennant teams are having a practice match. Please see the pennant board to see where you are playing. Our Purple Div 3 team will be playing the annual Clock Challenge Match against Comet Bay at Halls Head. Good luck ladies.

Reminder: Halls Head Ladies Gala Day in on Friday 13th October. Scroungers will be played on Thursday 12th October.

Happy Days and Happy Bowling

Volunteer of the Month

Wayne Langborne

Congratulations to Dave Butler on being this months chosen Volunteer to receive a premium bottle of wine donated by Wayne Langbourne. Dave is no stranger around the club, a very active volunteer as head of men's match. Dave recently switched from golf to bowls and is very handy on the greens. Its never easy organizing events and playing in the same but we appreciate that Dave is there making it happen.

Cheers Dave, you are our VOLUNTEER of the MONTH

Congratulations to Robyn White, Maureen Hewitt, Fay and Pat Symthe on attaining 20 year milestone membership.

I, Robyn White have been a very active member at all levels of the bowling club committees in that time. Along with Maureen, Fay and Pat. I have forged many friendships with a lot of members over the years. Which I have cherished. I encourage all members to put their hands up to volunteer in whatever capacity that they can. It is our volunteers that make us the mighty club we are.

2023 NATIONALS PREVIEW

BY VAL FEBBO ON OCTOBER 4, 2023 Bowls Connect

Following a successful inaugural running last year, the coveted Nationals will take centre stage in 2023 in the picturesque city of Perth in Western Australia as the entire bowling fraternity descends for one of the most action-packed fortnights on the calendar.

More than 30 national titles will be awarded across the duration of the competition at the three pristine host clubs, Sorrento, Warwick and Joondalup.

Six competitions will be held throughout the two weeks, including the Australian Champion of Champions, Australian Under-18 Championships, Australia Para Nationals, Australian Senior Sides Championships, Australian Sides Championships, and Australian Championships.

Three-time winner Lee Schraner will be back in the Champion of Champions field as he looks to further extend his record in one of the opening events on the schedule.

Other dangerous prospects such as Glen Pitts, Jack East and Craig Mills also lie ominously in the draw, ensuring it will be one of the most hotly contested stagings in history.

The women's field boasts an equally high calibre of contenders, with the likes of Cassandra Millerick, Sam Ferguson and Laini McGorman all bidding for their first title in the competition.

Running concurrently with the Champion of Champions is the Under-18 Championships, where the stars of the future will battle it out for their own taste of national silverware.

The boys' field sees the likes of Riley Gerick, Koby Cromie, Samuel Collier and Charlie Hicks scattered across the various disciplines, with the girls' boasting Reese Finn-Young, Amity Bickley and Stella Palmer in their return to the tournament.

Australia's most esteemed para bowlers will be making their way to the west as well, with the likes of Tony Bonnell, Serena Bonnell, Cheryl Lindfield, Josh Thornton and Chris Flavel all heading to the Para Nationals as they look to add to their already illustrious honours.

The nation's premier team-based 'state versus state and territory' competitions then commence with the Senior Sides Championships and Sides Championships, that will see Victoria look to defend both of the over-60s events, while New South Wales will be out to win a fourth consecutive women's Marj Marris Trophy and Queensland striving for back-to-back men's Alley Shields in the open events.

The Nationals is poised to finish with a bang, with the Australian Championships contested across the last four days, where a plethora of national and international stars will take to the green as they strive for one of the biggest annual titles on the calendar.

The likes of Natasha Van Eldik, Karen Murphy AM, Ellen Falkner MBE, Ellen Ryan, Kylie Whitehead, Katelyn Inch, Therese Hastings, Lynsey Clarke, Julie Keegan, Samantha Atkinson and Claire Turley will be in action across the women's fields throughout the week, setting the tone for some sensational bowls.

In the men's draws, defending singles champion Rob McMullen is back, while Cody Packer, Ben Twist, Tristan Smallacombe, Gary Kelly, Corey Wedlock, Kane Nelson, Jacob Nelson and Jake Rynne all feature across the week in what promises to be one of the closest in the event's history.

The 2023 Nationals will run from October 6-20, 2023, with live streaming to take place on Bowls Australia's Facebook and YouTube channels.

Football Tipsters

Well the footy season is over for another year and total prize money of $,2850 is now ready for collection.

Attached is a list of all tipsters who won money this year. Please pick up prize money from 9am Monday 2 October from the office.

The $70 grand final winner is Phil Whitehurst who selected Collingwood by 7 points.

Thank you to all tipsters who participated this year and thank you to my fellow markers who rocked up every Monday morning.

Mick O'Halloran – AFL Tipping Coordinator, 1 October 2023

PS LETS INCREASE FROM 60 TIPSTERS THIS YEAR TO 100 IN 2024!!

In case anyone may not have seen the final list of winners and prize money, which were placed on the tipping board Monday 28 August at the conclusion of qualifying rounds, I am placing these lists again on the club notice board. These will remain there for another week and If you have any queries please contact me. Please note the tipping board was removed on 2 October due to the bowling season commencing.
