Ladies Captains Report

Another week bites the dust. Another week closer to Xmas. Where do these weeks disappear too? Last Thursday we help our annual Butterfly Day. It was a huge success and was once again generously sponsored by Lena Jolly and Pat Morgan. It was a classic ladies day with weather, comradeship, and bowls all fantastic.

- Winners: Ailsa Nelson and Jeanette Brockman
- Runner-ups: Heather Little and Marice Scanlan
- 3rd: Linda Young and Pam Chester
- 4th: Jill Gumbleton and Julie Sedden
- 5th: Lyn Clouston + Debbie Drage

This week we're holding our Progressive Triples, which has been postponed once due to heat. Hopefully all should go smoothly this week and the weather gods look down upon us.

Next Thursday 14th December, we have our Annual Xmas Match Day, which is generously sponsored by Halls Head Dental Centre. Sure to be a day of fun, merriment and laughter. Dress up in Xmas colours, with your fancy Xmas hat (prizes awarded. See attached flyer) and come along and join in the Xmas activities. Please bring your lunch and a plate of food to share for afternoon tea. If you bring food that needs heating, please be responsible for doing that yourself. Also, spread the word to our past and present members who aren't playing bowls a lot, to come along and join us for afternoon tea, some Xmas cheer and presentations on the day.

Last Friday Yunderup held their annual Gala Day. Halls Head Ladies supported the event by entering 3 teams. Unfortunately, not in the winning circle but we all had a great day of fun, comradeship and some excellent bowling. Harvey Bowling Club also held their annual Gala Day and the ladies supporting this event were in the winning circle. Well done to these 4 ladies coming 3rd against some very strong combinations from the SW and Murray Leagues. Congratulations to: Patsy Smith, Norma Hebbeman, Trish McGerr and Julie Sedden. (picture on page 2)

Good luck to Linda Young, Lorraine Heckingbottom, Sue Edwards and Jeanette Brockman, who is the reserve, who are all playing in the ILRR 4's being played down in Busselton this Wednesday and Thursday. Go get 'em girls!!

A mixed bag of results this week at pennants. Halls Head ladies won 3 out of 7 games. Good effort. Only one more pennant game left this year, then we all can have a well earned rest over the Xmas break. Happy Days and Happy Bowling

MONDAY PAIRS

Monday winners

Winners, Wayne Langbourne and Denis Rubery

Second Eric and Doug

No information on third and consolation places.

You would be excused to think that the four fingers Tony Moore has raised equates to a four times "plate" winner....sadly (although really funny) it's in recognition of his four wrong biases he had on the day.

Thankfully his skipper Houghy never mentioned it (if you believe that you would believe anything). Once again the real winner is the clubs wooden wrong bias penalty box....we need a bigger box.....

Winners club triples

Barry Coote
Peter Nicolay
Ron Summers

The Club Championship Triples finals were played last Sunday with the worthy winners being Barry Coote, Peter Nicolay and Ron Summers. Runners up were Ken Wright, Alan Grieves and Jeff Allen. It was a fantastic contest worthy of a final with the match going down to the wire with Ken needing a single shot on his last bowl. In fairness to Ken it was virtually an impossible shot to make but geez he got close. Barry Coote, who's making a name for himself as a new member, got away to a reasonable lead early in the match but Kens team, which had done it all tournament, fought back hard to take the lead going into the final end. The standard across the whole competition was very high with a number of highly fancied teams being beaten by teams that gelled well together...there are no easy games at Halls Head.

Winners of the plate were Wayne Hough, Tony Moore and Steve Monamy over David and Dennis Rubbery and Wayne Langborne where the winners just played better, well done guys. Also well done to Dave Butler and his team who again put on a well run tournament.
