

Ladies Captain Report

We are slowly heading towards the end of the season. Still a few important events to be finalized and run, for both the ladies and men's bowling departments.

The ladies are down to the semi-finals of the annual 100 up. We have playing in the major:

Trish McGerr V Jill Gumby

Patsy Smith V Sue Edwards

In the plate:

Marg Schuts V Claudette Harper

Julie Craven V Chris Barker.

We will be playing the semi's this Thursday morning and the Grand-final will be played approx 12.30pm. Our generous sponsor, Pam Chester, will be in the house to perform the presentations approx 2.30ish. Come on down and watch the finals if you are at a loose end. Sure to be some very interesting games.

Our new score boards have scored a big 10/10 from the ladies this week. Having them, have made the scoring for the 100up a lot easier with the scores being able to go up to 99! Thank-you, once again to Bob Plater and his merry men for erecting such a valuable asset to all our rinks on all 4 greens. A huge effort and we all love them!!!

Don't forget the Men's 2 day Carnival this Sat and Sun. Please see Robyn White if you can help out in any way.

Monday 15th April we have the ladies AGM at 9.00am in the bar area. We will be voting for our ladies selection committee, announcing other committee members, announcing the winner of our Ladies Bowler Of The Year and Ladies Consistency Award.

Tuesday 16th April - Social Bowls. Names in by 8.30am. Finished by 11.30ish.

Thursday 18th April - Ladies League closing day at Pinjarra. Please have your name and money in to Sue Edwards asap. No ladies social bowls.

Tues April 23rd and Wed 24th April - Ladies 2 day Carnival. All hands on deck.

Congratulations to Allan Shaddick and Shane Kayler for taking out the Men's Pairs Championship last Sunday. It was a long, hot, two days of very talented bowling. A spectators delight. The lights even came on late Sat afternoon to accommodate a full day of bowls.

Happy Days

JACK GROVES AND BOB DAY MEDALS

There are 4 more games left this season, depending on none being cancelled due to weather and wet greens. On MAY 10 TH players who have qualified will be playing for the Jack Groves and Bob Day medals. There is a handicap list on the mixed bowls notice board. If you have a handicap of 6 or more and 10+ games played against your name you have qualified. Please ask if you are unsure.

Michael Bear

With our own Chris Barker being the only Halls Head player competing in the championship, a couple of carloads of supporters decided to make the trip down to Eaton to be her cheer squad.

Naturally hubby Brent was there along with David and Gillian Matheson, Lynette Clouston, Glenda Grieve, Mary Johnson, Pam Chester and Lesley Moir.

Jeni Stretton and Lyn Plater were official markers as well.

Well done to Chris for getting through to this stage and playing some great bowls.

Monday winners

Monday Pairs on 8th April saw 40 pairs competing so we were able to have the two consolation prizes again this week. Fantastic weather again with light winds, blue skies and not too hot, a perfect combination to get out on the greens and have a very competitive bowl with friends.

Congratulations to this weeks winners

Thought you might find this interesting and worth a mention in the BIAS.

On the 3rd April 2023 at the AGM for men's bowls Captain Harry Williams prior to delivering his report presented 8 badges to G Steele and P. Nicolay for scoring an 8 during the pairs championships.

On the 8th April 2024 (12 months later) at the GM for men's bowls Captain David Butler prior to delivering his report presented 8 badges to G. Steele and P. Nicolay for scoring an 8 during the pairs championships.

How's that for coincidence?

Thanks for sending this in Peter Brophy
