Ladies Match Report

Another busy week for the ladies at the Halls Head Bowlo. Last Thursday saw 50 of us ladies catching the Boddington Express at 6.30am to travel to Boddington to watch the Murray District Bowling League Grand finals. And what a day it was! Halls Head Red v Halls Head Blue in the Div 2 Grand final was a wonderful game full of spills and thrills. Red ended up pulling away towards the end and bought home the Pennant Flag to our club. Well done Red! Lots and lots of celebrations when we got back to the club house. A great morning/afternoon/evening had by all our bowlers and supporters.

Congratulations to Pt Bouvard for winning Div 1
Comet Bay for winning Div 3
Boddington for winning Div 4

Another pennant year completed, done and dusted. But.....there is still lots of bowls on our calendar over the next 2 months so don't pack away those bowls just yet!!

Thursday 6th March: Ladies Social Bowls.

Sunday 9th March : Sunday Session at the Bowlo. Mixed Triples Pop Stick Draw with a Twist. Place your name on the flyer. Sponsored by Fisho, our new sponsors. Please support them.

Thursday 16th March: Ladies Super Sixes. Names on flyer please. Sponsored by Jacki Henry, Eileen Proctor, Coral Anning and Bev Farrow.

Tuesday 21st, Thursday 23rd and Tuesday 28th March: Ladies 100UP Sponsored by Pam Chester.

Best of luck to Jeni Stretton who is travelling all the way to Kalgoorlie (on the Kalgoorlie Express) to play in the IZRR 4's this weekend Sat and Sun 8th and 9th March. Go get 'em Jeni.

Last Tues and Wed the Murray League held their Veterans, Novice and 4's Championships at Pt Bouvard. What a great two days of very competitive bowling. And our Halls Head representatives all played exceptional bowls. And the good news is: we have a MDBL Champion at our club!!

Anna Kollios, our Novice representative, won all of her five round robin games with 50 shots up. So Anna was crowned the MDBL Novice Champion. Well done Anna. You are a star!!

Glenda Grieve, our Vets Representative, played beautifully over the two days and bowled herself into the Grand final. Glenda just lost a very close game to Irene Grout. Well done Glenda for being the MDBL Vets runner-up.

MDBL Veterans Runner Up Glenda Grieve

Carol Funazzi, Janine Baker, Kerry Steele and Heather Little won 3 out of 4 of their matches and missed out on playing in the grand final only by a few shots. Well done girls.

Thankyou very much to all our markers, board turners and coaches that volunteered to help out the league and our players over the two days.

Last weekend a team of Halls Head ladies travelled to Bunbury to compete in their Ladies 2 Day Classic. We won 4 of our 6 games against some very tough opposition. A few ladies and their partners competed in the Margaret River 2 Day Mixed Carnival too. Congrats to Jeni Stretton and her team for running out winners. Well done.

See you all at the "Sunday Sesh"

Happy Days

Men's report from...The spy

Report from Feb 27

The captains been busy with the Men's singles finals and celebrating a birthday.

We have clear air in front with no mid-week pennants and a break from it on Saturday so we can expect good numbers at social bowls this week.

Wednesday was as expected with numbers growing to 56!

Be good to see some of those bowlers who turn up for Pennants but don't seem to make it to social bowls in the off season. You never know you might just enjoy it.

Before we forget, Peter Brown is on the road to recovery, his new kidney if functioning really well. We are not sure if this is causing some brain strain as he has been mumbling about when he is able to play again getting a bowling arm. Maybe he heard about Don Carters effort in the singles championship.

“We didn't lose the game; we just ran out of time.”

—Vince Lombardi

.....We are watching you

Some Wednesday Bell Ringers

Thanks for owning your bowls and ringing the bell...looks like you had a laugh about it.

Thanks also for Lobby who whipped out his phone and took these snaps, always happy to include pictures from in and around the club in the Bias.

Seasons End

With empathy along the lines of "Reading the board" the Bar manager called, whose card is this, it has no money left in it. Who is going to pay? While everyone looked around, Dennis was standing quietly by the bar Gulpin down a beer when Bill said that he failed to Warner and it could be that Rodney he tried to Connor once.

Meanwhile Max was Doncon his empty glass on the bar shouting we need a couple of Butlers around here to get some service,

All Alan could do was stand there and Grieve as Barry tried to scoote out and down the Lane with young David. It wasn't their card, they wouldn't Steele said Graham, you're Wright cried Ken. Ah I'll pray for them said the Bishop.

I bet we will Reid about it in the Bias said Larry and David chirped in yes, but that story will be a Heck of way down in the Bottom of the last page. Yeah I believe there is a photo of Kevin trying to Lobb his bowls in the ditch. When all Sedon- done cried Ron he was just posing for a cartoon, so he's not a Loser yelled Rudi?

Just then Gregory came in looking clean and Crisp, wow you look oKay said Kelly maybe a Little improvement Peter added, more likely to make Ashley Kemble tremble. He's still a bit on the Young side said Richard, Yes but he is a Hunter quipped Alan he knows what happens behind the bar.

Then some kiwi yelled out, "don't forget to Minchin thim Beverley boys they're good chups. they move around the bar a lot they might know. Nah said Norm once they sit down, they are hard to Peel off, I wouldn't select them. Now now, said Stewart, we need to Foster better relationships, maybe then we would see Moore of Tony and Larry.

That was too much for Michael to Bear so he went out to play in the garden with Max who was getting flowers ready to pot. I'll do that said Neil I'm a good Potter. So why can't we paint the light Towers said Simon they need to blend in if we are gunna put a cover over them. We could do it in two shades of Brown said Peter and Alan in unison as they frolicked in the flower bed.

Glad Summers nearly over, mumbled Ron too many people mucking around with matches some bowlers have already been burned. What's Ash worth these days asked Dennis they used to use it in cement to patch things up. Sounds like a lot of mumbo jumbo to me said a man with a similar sounding name.

Just then appearing at the door was the presidents alter-ego Wayne, he came in shouting "Uhm has anyone seen my credit card?" Uhm I'm afraid it's empty, but I will gladly sell the shirt off my back to buy you all an end of season drink.

Great effort, I'm sure we tried ***** Well done Halls Head,

By Terry Gilchrist

"What a fantastic group of ladies this club boasts! I am overwhelmed by the support and encouragement I have received from so many. Thanks Sue and Jill for your preparation, coaching and guidance through the myriad of rules and etiquettes. I'd have floundered without it. Special thanks to Pat and Julie for your unwavering care and support. You have lifted me up and carried me through my first singles competition. Thank you, thank you, thank you!!!!" Anna Kollios

So I'm told

.....our most respected Director of Bowls travelled to South Perth today to compete in the country week pairs knockout. Pairs is 2x2x2x2.....Bruce could only play 2 as his other 2 were still at home! Luckily Dougie had his bowls there so lent them to Bruce. I understand that Bruce is looking at ditching his SRVs and buying Dougies XGs 🏏

Work should be all but complete down at Pinjarra Bowling Club on their new 'sky dome' roof. It will be interesting to see how it looks and what its like to play under the roof.

This is one of the options being looked at for Halls Head. Well done Pinjarra on making it happen.
